

SHORT CV: Krisztián Fonyódi

Thematic Area: TA3

Key areas of Expertise in Digital Heritage: digital photography, digitalization of museum collections, collection management systems, digital storytelling, digital strategies, digital archiving of temporary exhibitions

Krisztián Fonyódi Head of Digital Photography Department at the Museum of Arts Budapest, and Supervisor of Digitisation at the Ministry of Human Resources. He has participated in several Europeana Projects (Europeana Inside, Athena, AthenaPlus etc.). For 4 years he has been member of the International Digital Exhibition Working Group. Additionally he is leading the digitization project “museum-digital” in Hungary which helps Hungarian museums large and small to publish information about their objects and to create a digital inventory as well.

ViMM has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 Programme as Coordination and Support Action, under GA n° 727107