SHORT CV Lizzy Jongma

Thematic Area: 1

Key areas of Expertise in Digital Heritage:
Digitization of (Art) historical Objects
Harvesting, connecting Digital Heritage
E-Humanities / e-History WW2
Search and retrieval Digital Heritage
Web Development DH

Lizzy Jongma (1970) studied History at the University of Nijmegen (Netherlands) and specialized in digitization, automation and innovation of cultural heritage and historical information. Lizzy started working as Senior ICT project manager for the Dutch Network for War Collections WWII (Netwerk Oorlogsbronnen) in 2016. The Netwerk Oorlogsbronnen is national national network of heritage Institutions and portal site containing over 10 million WWII related objects and a biographical site containing resources about approx.
300.000 people. The Netwerk Oorlogsbronnen is hosted at the NIOD, Institute for War, Holocaust- en Genocidestudies.

Before this Lizzy worked at the Rijksmuseum (2011-2016) on Open Access, API's, Public Domain collections, digitization of conservation research, collaboration with Europeana and Wikipedia and the development of digital Annotation tools.

Lizzy is member of the Europeana Member Council and Adviser for Van Gogh World Wide
(Van Gogh Museum, RKD)