

SHORT CV Corinne Szteinszneider

Thematic Area: 3

Key areas of Expertise in Digital Heritage:

- Networking
- Coordination & project management
- Re-use of digital CH
- Participative & collaborative approaches

Corinne Szteinszneider , Coordinator & Senior project Manager

She animates and develops the wide network & partners of the association, and manages the European projects and she is in charge of general administration of Michael Culture. Previously, she was general secretary of Relais Culture Europe, the French Contact Point of the DG Culture of the European Commission. She accompanied numerous European operators and projects (Culture, Creative Europe, Citizenship, Regional policies. She was also in charge of European projects for Dédale within she developed European projects focused on the role of culture and creative sectors in social innovation, environment and empowerment. She also worked for Patrimoine Sans Frontières, an association dedicated to the defence of tangible and intangible heritage at French and international levels within she developed a pedagogical project for primary schools “Patrimoine Y es-tu ? ” with teachers and cultural institutions, focusing on teaching cultural diversity.

She is graduated in History, History of Art and Cultural Heritage management from the Sorbonne University and in Cultural European Management from M.Hicter Foundation. She’s in charge of coordination and administration in Europeana DSI-Europeana Platform. She participated to AthenaPlus, DCH-RP projects as MCA Senior project manager and coordinator. She’s also member of Europeana Pro and she’s board member of Culture Action Europe and MCA representative in the EYCH2018 stakeholders committee – EC. Member of Europeana Pro. Involved in DSI3 in various WG

ViMM has received funding from the European Union’s Horizon 2020 Programme as Coordination and Support Action, under GA n° 727107