Director of Heritage in Motion multimedia competition - Cultural Entrepreneur - Owner of Ephraim Productions. Working as a manager and consultant for a range of cultural organisations. Based in The Hague, The Netherlands I have built an extensive network both nationally and internationally in the cultural field, business and politics. As a driving force I have lead organisations through changes, founded new initiatives and consolidated and professionalised institutions. I excel in networking and the organisation of versatile projects on the border of art, culture, marketing and business.
