

SHORT CV
SANJA HALLING

Thematic Area: 3

Key areas of Expertise in Digital Heritage:

- Digital access
- Digital exhibitions
- Open Data
- Linked open data
- Standards
- Digital preservation

Project leader for open data assignment from the government to The National Archives in Sweden to promote the efforts of the state authorities to create access to digital information and open data.

Previously a Senior Advisor at Digisam/The National Archives of Sweden, responsible for the Swedish national coordination of digitisation, digital preservation and Digital access to cultural heritage. She has been working in EU projects like DC-NET, Linked Heritage and DCH-RP. Halling studied Curatorship, got a Masters degree in History of Art at University of Stockholm, and has studied at Université de Haute Bretagne, France. She worked previously at several museums, cultural organisations, and taught courses in fine arts and history of art.

ViMM has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 Programme as Coordination and Support Action, under GA n° 727107