

SHORT CV: Sofia Avgerinou Kolonia
Advisor ICOMOS
Thematic Area: TA1

- Archeology
- Virtual Archeology
- Digital Heritage
- Virtual Museums

Vice President of ICOMOS – International board.

Holder of a DOCTORAT (NOUVEAU REGIME) from the EHESS in the field of Urban Geography (1986), France D.E.A a l'Histoire et Civilisation (Etudes Urbaines) from the Ecole des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales-Paris (EHESS 1981), France Holder of a Diploma from the Panteion University's Institute of Regional Development (1980), Greece Graduate of the NTUA in Architecture (1973), Greece. Her Research Interests involve issues in the analysis and planning of historical centers, historical cities and settlements Development problems and planning in urban areas Development prospects of areas (islands and mountains) which combine ecological and cultural special features. An alternative tourism. Historic cities-urban tourism.

Currently she is a Professor at the Department of URBAN AND REGIONAL PLANNING of School of Architecture NTUA, Greece.

ViMM has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 Programme as Coordination and Support Action, under GA n° 727107