Key areas of Expertise in Digital Heritage:

Development of Digital Research Infrastructure in the Field of Culture and Arts

I am Senior Advisor, Head of the Group for Study and Analytical Affairs in Department for Development of Digital Research Infrastructure, at Ministry of Culture and Media of the Republic of Serbia. Some of the activities related to the work of my Department are: Development of National Strategy for digitalization, defining the technological, legal and organizational framework for the successful construction of a digital research infrastructure, as well as the widest coordination of all participants in this process; coordination with international organizations and institutions, with the aim of efficient construction of digital research infrastructure.

The digitization of the national cultural heritage and contemporary art in the Republic of Serbia is a vital issue of our cultural policy. Digitization of the national cultural heritage and contemporary art is a comprehensive process that includes long-term preservation of national cultural heritage, multimedia presentation and reliable access to digitized material, as well as the optimal and safe use of this material for various purposes without any restrictions which would have a direct impact on the economic development of the country.

I am a member of the Europeana Network Association and National representative as observer for the DCHE Commission expert group.

Previously I worked as a Senior Advisor for International Cooperation in the Ministry of Trade, Tourism and Telecommunications of the Republic of Serbia in the Group for European Integration and International Cooperation for 9 years. My basic activities were: Communication and correspondence with the relevant government institutions and international organization; Participation in the work of international and regional organizations in the area of electronic communications and information society, especially in inter-Governmental organizations where the Republic of Serbia has the member state status; Development of plans, programs and work reports on activities in those fields.
